*Our prayer brings great joy and gladness to our Lord. He wants and awaits it.
By his grace he can make us like him in inward being as we are in outward form.
This is his blessed will. So he says, 'Pray inwardly, even though you feel no joy for it.
For it does good, though you feel nothing, see nothing, yes, even though you think you cannot pray.
For when you are dry and empty, sick and weak, your prayers please me, though there be little enough to please you. All believing prayer is precious to me'. God accepts the goodwill and work of his servants, no matter how we feel. It pleases God that by the help of his grace we should work away at our praying and our living, directing all our powers to him until the fullness of joy we have him who we seek - Jesus*

City of York Council - A Time to Reflect:

Saturday 8 September 2018, 3pm, all Saint's Church, Pavement, York YO1 9NR.

Please join us at a service to remember those who have been lost to suicide. Many people find it difficult to talk about bereavement especially when due to suicide. This service is a chance to reflect and remember loved ones who may have been lost to suicide. It is also a chance to talk or just listen to others. Simply sharing with others with similar experience can help. The event is for people of faith or no faith. We think it is important to talk about suicide in informed, helpful and non-judgemental ways and for people who are bereaved to realise that the feelings they may have are not unique or unusual.

There are posters about most of these events on the notice board at the back of church
