A THOUGHT FROM THICKET – SUNDAY 7 FEBRUARY – DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

“Christ’s mercy endures everything, and does not think evil but rejoices in the good; it intercedes for us and knocks on the door of our heart; it lowers itself until it conquers the soul with its love full of humility.” (St Raphael Kalinowski)

LAUDATO SI BOOKSHELF AT CHURCH –
COME AND BORROW A BOOK!

What a fantastic response we've had from parishioners, donating religious themed books for our shared bookshelf at Church. Why not have a look through next time you are at Church and borrow a book to help with your Easter Season reflections and contemplations?

This Sunday 7 April, the next 'Laudato Si' Goal that we shall be considering is Ecological Education. This is a rather grand name for learning how to love God, to look after mind, body and soul and our Common Home, to understand our priorities and how they shape our interaction with the world. In our families, parishes, schools and universities, our local community and our natural surroundings, 'ecological education' enables us to translate our learning into habits and behaviour that puts care of God's creation above self-interest. There will be a short meditation on this topic in the Lady Chapel from 9.15 am before morning Mass next Sunday, led by a member of the Laudato Si group. Please come and make use of this time of prayer for all of us to gain insight into how we can work together for God's creation. Everyone is welcome, whether you've been involved with Laudato Si before or not.

Many Thanks, Laudato Si
