A THOUGHT FROM THICKET – 30 June (Saints Peter and Paul)

“Blessed are those who truly love the Lord and always keep Him at their side! Let us consider the glorious St Paul: it doesn't seem that any other name fell from his lips than that of Jesus, as coming from one who kept the Lord close to his heart.” (St Teresa of Avila)

JUST A BIG THANKYOU

I want to express my sincere thanks to all who made my jubilee such a marvellous occasion. I was really overwhelmed by your enthusiasm and good will not just on the evening but in the lead up to the celebration and beyond. My family have now returned home with hearts full of joy and amazement – a bit like the Transfiguration for the Apostles.

I am truly thankful to St George's parish and all the other parishes who were represented for your cards and kind gifts to me. The church looked its very best with all the flowers, Patricia did a wonderful job. The music was excellent and lifted all our hearts. Lastly a big thank you to Ann and her team. A lot of work was done by them behind the scenes and is much appreciated. Canon Jerry
