FAIRTRADE STALL after both Masses next Sunday.

ST GEORGE'S SVP has organised a PARISH OUTING to Ryedale Folk Museum, an open-air museum at Hutton-le-Hole in the heart of the North Yorkshire Moors, on Thursday 19 September. The coach will leave St George's Church at 10.30am, stopping off at the Crown Inn, next door to the museum, for lunch, returning to York at 5pm. If any parishioner would like to attend this free parish event, could they please add their name to the list at the back of church after Mass so that we can confirm catering numbers with the Crown Inn. Thank you for your continued, generous support of St George's SVP.

READERS AND MINISTERS OF THE EUCHARIST annual Commissioning Day is 19 October in Scarborough. If you are interested in becoming a Reader or Minister please speak to Canon Jerry, Fr Jo Michael, Ann Middleton or Chris Polack who will (hopefully) answer any questions. A list will be available shortly to sign and there will be a coach from here. Readers and Ministers volunteer their availability and more are always welcome, particularly Ministers.

We have a new CARD-READER at the back of church. The updated model does not rely on an internet connection to accept donations and is slightly quicker. However, gift aid details will have to be re-entered (for the first use only) . Thanks to all who donate.

CATHOLIC WOMEN are invited to the

Middlesbrough Diocese AGM of the UNION OF CATHOLIC MOHTERS on Friday 6 September at St Aelred's Parish, York. We begin with Mass at 12 followed by lunch (free) in the Community Centre. We will be joined by the National President Joan Hodge all the way from Arundel & Brighton and we also have a talk on the life of Mary Ward by Sr Patricia of the Bar Convent. All welcome but for catering purposes, please confirm by contacting Rose Cartledge on 07891 – 143761 or by email: rosecartledge@gmail.com
