A THOUGHT FROM THICKET-

“Whoever lives in the presence of so good a friend and excellent a leader [as Christ], who went ahead of us to be the first to suffer, can endure all things. The Lord helps us, strengthens us, and never fails; He is a true friend.”

(St Teresa of Avila)

FUND RAISING CONCERT: A GUITAR

(When instruments are left behind in war)

St George's Church on Wednesday 30 October, 7.00pm.

Leaving your home, your country, your family and friends behind because of war, and seeking protection in remote, foreign places with different languages and customs is a traumatic experience. So much is left behind, so much loss. For musicians, this departure includes leaving behind their instruments, part of their voices, part of their identity, affecting their profession.

This concert seeks to raise funds to purchase a guitar for York-based Ukrainian guitar performer

Andrii Polishchuk.

All the funds will go for that purpose.

The concert brings together excellent musicians based in York, performing works for solo guitar, recorders, and baroque ensemble together with improvisations by the extraordinary duo Weaver and Wood.

Free contribution

Join us for a special night and contribute to our goal!

WARM WINTER CLOTHES FOR CARECENT

Do you have any warm winter coats, hats, gloves, boots or waterproofs you no longer need? Please consider bringing them to Mass on Sunday 13 or 27 October. Our volunteers will deliver all items donated to Carecent for use by the needy and the
